Southern Beauties.

At the Confederate reunion at Birmngham, Ala., this week, a series of hisand dramatic entertainments were arranged for, Old negroes, lamous songs, musicians rendered vorite and famo us southern melodies, veterans appeared in the tableaux of camp scenes, and the domestic side of Divie during the war was properly il-

A "Confederate Galaxy of Beauty" was organized. It consisted of one young woman from each scuthern State who is supposedly the handsomest girl in her Commonwealth.

Miss F. S. Clark, of Newport News.

Virginia's representative in the galaxy of beauty, is indeed a charming woman. She is taller than the average, of an exceedingly willowy, graceful carriage, and is a decided blonde, with features of a Grecian mould.

Incidentally it may be stated that the young women selected are, in every case, daugnters of representative southern families, whose ancestors have played an important part in the history of this Southland. These girls were, of course, the sunshine of the meeting. They were the toosts of every occasion and the pets of the army of old soldiers.

But the table tux in watch the "galaxy of beauty" participated was the feature of these entertainments. The irst of these tableaux presented the states in the act of secession. The states, represented by their fair daughs, were on the stage. A legend under-neath read, "United We Stand."

FOR THE relief and cure of a cold in the head there is more potency in Ely's Cream Balm than in anything else it is possible to prescribe. This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarra and may fever. I have the highest companions by cold in the head, catarra and hay even. Used in the initial stages of these companints. Cream Balm prevents any serious development of the symptoms, while almost number-less uses are on record of radical cares of chronic catarrh and hay fever after all other treatments have proved of no avail.
